

TheCaseSolutions.com

Number 1 in case studies solutions

THE FINOVA GROUP, INC. (A)

Introduction

The Finova Group, Inc. Effectively, (A) case gives a perfect discussion of a financial services firm that had so much of problems because of wrong management decisions, imprudent credit policies, and unfavorable macro environment. The case also uses strategic financial decision and how particular decision impact sustainability, credit rating, and the confidence of investors.

Key Issues Identified

Just as aggressive acquisition strategies and high risk borrowing contributed to the rapid growth of its top and bottom lines, the same reasons made Finova Group over reliant on the good fortunes of the economy. Weak and unrealistic credit risk management as well as its over dependence on debts aggravated the firm's financial problems.

Strategic Financial

The following paper examines different approaches that Finova took to cope with its financial calamity, covering efforts to alter its debt and equity, seeking more funds, and divestitures. Such actions were intended to bring order back into the company and regain all necessary forms of trust from stakeholders.

Conclusion

The Finova Group, Inc. A case is considered useful in that it offers an analysis of the real experience of managing a global financial services firm. It highlights the aspects of responsible risk taking, good financial planning and decision making and good communication in the management of financial risks.

Resource

This case is just a sample partail case solution. Please place the order on the website to order your own orignally done case solution.

Resource: Visit thecasesolution.com for detailed analysis and more case studies.