

TheCaseSolutions.com

Number 1 in case studies solutions

VOCATIONAL TRAINING IN PUNJAB – SEEKING SKILLS AND FINDING BARRIERS

Introduction

The case written by Rahmani and entitled as “Vocational Training in Punjab – Seeking Skills and Finding Barriers”, describes about the problem of Punjab to provide effective vocational training and education to its youth. There are several programs that the government has started to close the skills gap but the region has several challenges in the implementation of the programs

Vocational Training

The difficulties in Vocational Training in Punjab Punjab has a high demand for the vocational training of employees, major in sectors such as agriculture, manufacturing and service industries. However, the vocational training system has a number of challenges.

Proposed Solutions

Proposed Solutions To these barriers, the case recommends to meet the needs of the industry with vocational training programs. This can be done by inviting different companies so that they help in the development of course content that will train students with marketable skills.

Conclusion

The given case of vocational training in Punjab cherished the fact that considerable endeavors are in progress, however, there are considerable challenges ahead. Regarding the issues of curriculum relevance, infrastructure and the attitudes of the society Punjab is able to make proper changes to improve vocational training programs and provide youth with necessary tools to find employment.

RESOURCE

This is just a sample partial case solution. Please place the order on the website to order your own originally done case solution.

Resource: Visit thecasesolutions.com for detailed analysis and more case studies.