

TheCaseSolutions.com

Number 1 in case studies solutions

WILL WIN,
DIRECTOR, QUALITY ASSURANCE

INTRODUCTION

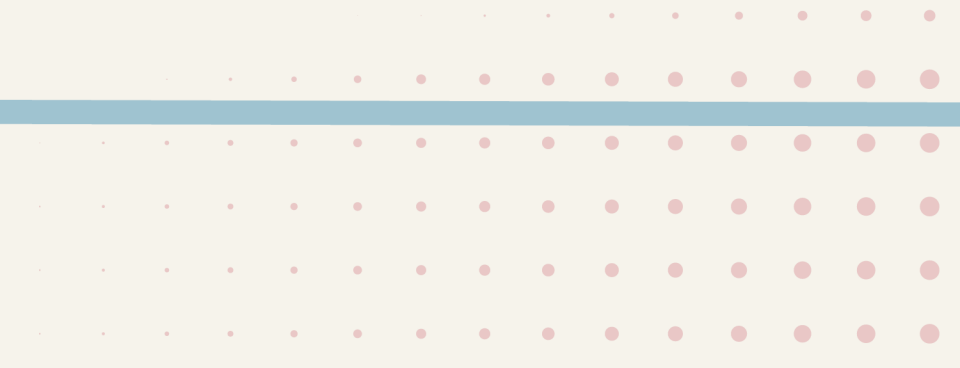

The “Will Win, Director, Quality Assurance” is a detailed case analysis of a quality assurance or quality control director and the organizational issues that he or she is likely to encounter at a critical juncture in his or her career. This case is available on The Case Solutions website and also offers many insights into quality management in a complex business context.

BACKGROUND

Hence, Will Win of the case study, after managing extensive experience in his field, takes the challenging position of a Director of Quality Assurance in a newly establishing organization. The company is growing steadily day by day and as a result a huge pressure is being put on the QA team. Win faces the challenge of ensuring the QA strategy is properly coordinated with the company's expansion agenda but all the time ensuring that quality is not compromised.

STRATEGIC SOLUTIONS

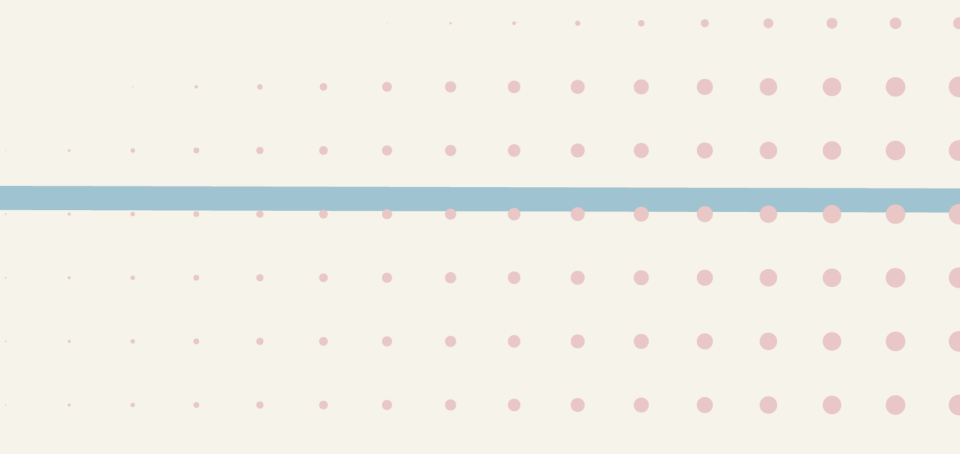

Hence, to meet these challenges, the strategy applied by Win is the following one: He considers fostering a high-quality assurance system that uses conventional and creative solutions to quality management. Win also aims at improving group coordination as a means of improving organizational effectiveness.

CONCLUSION

This paper explores the case study of the “Will Win, Director, Quality Assurance” which presents valuable lesson on quality management in a proliferation organization. In doing so, Will Win highlights how a director can tackle strategic question and pertinent problems to provide for QA's success and organisational growth. For further information regarding cases and solutions, please visit the website of The Case Solutions.

RECOMMENDATION

This is just a sample partial case solution. Please place the order on the website to order your own originally done case solution.

Resource: Visit thecasesolutions.com for detailed analysis and more case studies.